The Sewage Question

A great deal of comment has been caused in town by the report which was published in the last issue of the Pioneer relative to the sewage systems that must be established in all municipalities this year according to an Order in Council issued a short time ago. The feeling amongst the majority of ratepayers seems to be that this will be a great hardship in some respects while others think that it is all right. There is no objection to compelling the municipality to take all the necessary precautions within their power and to provide proper sanitary accommodation consistent with the resources of municipality, but when it comes to a matter of the expenditure of thousands of dollars which will place a heavy debenture debt on all small municipalities then the government should itself find some means to help to pay for so radical an undertaking. In the case of Didsbury having to instal a sewage system a waterworks system of some kind would have to be put in as well for flushing purposes, because a poor system of sewage would be a thousand times
worse than no system at all.

An Explanation in School Board Matters

EDITOR PIONEER:
In view of the fact that the School

Ghost Pine Items

Will you let me say a few words in your paper about some of our christian friends in favor of the herd law. It seems to be one or two of the five or ten acre farmers that are trying to kick up the biggest fuss. They do not seem to have sense enough to see that cattle help to bring money into the country. What would it cost them to fence their potatoe patch. Is the use of the country that is unbroken and will be for some time yet, to lie there for the sun to dry up or will our friends let the herd law die the death of the just, but the country is ready for it.

Our esteemed friends Mr. L. and E. Ferry are leaving us. I am sure everybody wishes them all kinds of good luck.

Blooming Prairie News

News is scarce again this week.

Eight loads of spruce poles left the river the 21st.

A bad accident happened at the Red Deer crossing. The river had overflowed when a heavily loaded hauled came down the bank, the driver turned too short and broke the tongue and the load was upset in the edge of the water. The names of the owners were not learned but the outfit belonged to some one in T. 30, R. 18 or 19.

Willow posts are getting scarcer than hens teeth along the Red Deer.

There are plenty of spruce poles along the cut banks but are hard earned when loaded.

The trails are getting in good shape again after the drifting of Tuesday and Wednesday.

One On Andrew

A belated pun with Andrew Carnegie as the victim, is being circulated at Washington. The innominate was on board a ferry boat at Norfolk, on the day the president visited that port. Something went wrong with the compass. The captain appealed to the mate. The mate examined the compass and said: "I guess it must be attracted by that steel magnate over there."—Troy Times.

Refused to Answer
A colored woman in an American city presented herself the other day in an Equal Suffrage state at the place of registration to qualify for the casting of her vote at the next municipal election.
"With what political party do you affiliate?" inquired the clerk of the unaccustomed applicant, using the prescribed formula.
The dusky "lady" blushed, all composure and confusion. "I'm obliged to answer that there question."
"Certainly, the law requires it."
"Then," replied the colored woman, "I don't believe I'll vote, cause I'd hate to have to mention the party's name. He's one of the nicest gent'men in town."

Sever Meuse
Two wretched-looking tramps were brought before the magistrate. Addressing the worse looking of the two, he said:
"Where do you live?"
"Nowhere, sir."
"And where do you live?" addressing the second.
"I've got the room above him, your worship."

HELP THE CHILDREN OUT

The trouble and annoyance which they cause you by their involuntary failings at night is not usually their fault, but the result of constitutional weakness. Write Mrs. Sumner, Box 77, Windsor, Ont., and she will send you any mother her successful home treatment, with instructions. This treatment is effective also with children, and people who are troubled with the same weakness. Write today.

In the course of a lesson on the subject of domestic economy and hygiene, a mistress got a singularly smart and apt answer from a girl.
"Speaking of milk and its importance as a food, the lady asked:
"What is the best place wherein to keep milk perfectly nice and fresh during, say, a hot summer day?"
"And one girl—evidently thinking it was an easy one—promptly answered: "Please, teacher, in the cow."

Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is the result of expert chemical experiments, undertaken to discover a preventive of inflammation of the lungs and consumption, by destroying the germs that develop these diseases, and fill the world with pitiable subjects hopelessly stricken. The use of this Syrup will prevent the dire consequences of neglected Colds. A trial, which costs only 25 cents, will convince you that this is correct.

In a home where the mother is somewhat aggressive and the father good-natured and peace-loving, the child's estimate of home conditions was largely expressed thus: "While dressing, the mother paused in the act of putting on her shoes and said: 'I certainly am daisy on a penny. I have worn those for four months. I don't know what you would do, John, if I were not. I am doubtful and nervous on every thing.' The little girl looked up from her dolls and remarked: "Except father."—Success.

LIFE'S OUTLOOK FOR YOUNG GIRLS.

Nature Makes Demands Upon Them Which Only Such a Tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Can Supply.

The girl of today—the woman of tomorrow, and until that to-morrow comes she suffers a weariness and loss of strength and brightness. These woes, with pallid cheeks, shortness of breath and persistent headaches, tell plainly that words that she needs red blood, in the form of new, rich red blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are just the medicine growing girls need. Every dose helps to make new, rich blood, thus helping languid dependent girls on to the full bloom of womanhood, making them robust, cheerful and attractive. Mrs. Albert Putnam, Port Robinson, Ont., says: "A couple of years ago my daughter Mattie, now fifteen, was in declining health. She complained of severe headaches, had no appetite, was very pale, and exhausted after the least exertion. As time passed on she was hardly able to drag herself about, notwithstanding that she was under medical treatment and continuously taking medicine. At this juncture a neighbor strongly advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to do so. After she had taken three or four boxes, her health began to improve; the headaches were not so frequent, or so severe, and her appetite improved. She began to cheer and she continued taking the Pills until she had used six boxes, and now she is as well as ever she had been in her life, and since that time she has been as robust as some girls could wish to be. I will strongly urge all mothers of growing girls to keep their health for their children's sake, and try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had from any medicine dealer, or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

Fresh Supplies in Demand—Wherever Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has been introduced increased supplies have been ordered, showing that wherever it goes this excellent Oil impresses its power upon the people. No wonder, for its potency is never impaired. It is put up in most portable shape and may be carried without fear of breakage.

Mrs. Pew—Don't you think there was a good deal of truth in Dr. Long's sermon today?

CURED HIS RHEUMATISM.
Yarmouth, N.S., June 2, 1908.—"I have been cured of rheumatism for the past year and have taken a good many kinds of medicine and found no relief for it."
"One day a friend advised me to try Gull Pills, so I tried, and after taking only one box of them, I felt like a new man."

"I thought I would try you a few lines to let you know how thankful I feel for the relief they gave me, and would advise all sufferers from Rheumatism to get Gull Pills."

As Windle Viewed Marriage
"There would be less divorce," said ex-Governor Windle, speaking at a dinner in Philadelphia, "if there were fewer women like William Windle."

William Windle embarked on an excursion steamer for Point Brete, and a few miles out, as he paced the upper deck and drank in the bracing ozone, he spied his friend Jackson.
"Why, Jackson, how are you?" he exclaimed.
"All right, but I'm a little out of my wife's company."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

A Standard Medicine.—Parmedee's Vegetable Pills, compounded of entirely vegetable substances known to have a revivifying and salutary effect upon the digestive organs, have through years of use attained a high reputation that they rank as a standard medicine. The lining should remember this, should their constitution, they can be assimilated by the weakest stomach and are certain to have a healthful and agreeable effect on the sluggish digestive organs.

THE COMET HUNTER.

His Emotions When He Finds a New Wanderer in Space.

The province of comet hunting is perhaps the most fascinating branch of practical astronomy. If there still live among us moderns one truly survivor of the tradition of antiquity, one patient, expectant lover of the skies, sees him among the comet hunters, for today, as of old, you will find him perched on some remote mountain, the heavens from dusk to dawn, suspicious, almost superstitious of success, yet ever supported by the thought that perhaps he, too, may add his chapter to the story celestial. Let us follow him at his work. Suddenly he notices a faint glow of hazy light, he for an instant surmises, yet trusts that his eye deceives him not. Another minute and a larger telescope has made him sure. It shows its burr to his library and consults Herschel's catalogue of known comets. He finds the place in the book; down the page runs his eager finger. There is nothing recorded at that exact spot on the sky. It must be a comet. Yet even Herschel's careful scrutiny was not so very infrequently at fault, as yet there is no certainty. He must apply the final test.

The larger telescope is now brought into play. It is truly a comet. It must be following some appointed orbit in space. It must be changing its position with reference to the stars. There is no slight sure there is a comet. The minutes pass, in three or four of the comet is there? He thinks there is, but is almost sure there is not. No man could remain impassive. His pipe goes out; he forgets to smoke. Another quarter hour makes assurance doubly sure.

But now he is seized with a new fear, is he the first to have some other anticipated the discovery? There are another three comet hunters who live in Vienna. Perhaps even now word is on the telegraphic cable. This is the worst case. The astronomer runs to the telephone, calls long distance and asks for the Harvard college observatory, which is the central clearing-house station for announcing new discoveries. They tell him calmly that they have heard nothing; that the discovery will be at once verified and made known by cable and telegram in every observatory throughout the world before morning. The astronomer goes to shut up his telescopes, and will work no more tonight, but he waits a little as he crosses the room.—Professor Harold J. Brown in Harper's Weekly.

A Cruel Jest.
Samuel Rogers, the poet, resided with Lady Holland and suffered from cholera and dysentery. He died of illness and death. During the cholera epidemic Lady Holland was a prey to indecent superstitions. He could think of nothing but precautionary measures and on one occasion was desirous to flingers all that she had done. He communicated to his family and placed in the next room the baths, the apparatus for fumigation, the blankets, the mustard plasters, the drugs of every sort.

"You have forgotten the only thing that would be of any use," observed Mr. Rogers.
"And what is that?"
"A coffin," replied the poet.
Lady Holland smiled—"Memoirs of the Duchesse de Dino."

A Terrifying Smoke.
The Mexican punk smoke cigarettes made of the dried leaves of the merrill bush weed. One use of the peculiar effect of mercurial smoking is to distort the business of all animals, making them of enormous size and horrible shape. The smoker is seized with a horrible fear, something like the horrors brought on by diphtheria tremors. A kitten or a puppy in the distorted vision appears as some terrible creature. A common sight in Mexico is to see a swarthy "greaser," armed to the teeth, use in terror from a small dog, while he would fearfully attack any man with his knife or his muckbat.—New York World.

How Old Spiders Live.
Old spiders, which have neither web nor the materials to make one, often hunt about to find out the webs of other spiders, younger and weaker than themselves, with whom they venture battle. The spider generally succeeds, and the younger spider is driven out to make a new web, and the old spider remains in possession until a stronger spider invades the web and drives it out. When thus dispossessed the spider seldom ventures another attack, but tries to subside into the few insects that may fall accidentally into its clutches and eventually die of hunger.

THAT'S WHAT ANTICOTTEN- OIRE SAYS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

They Cured His Diabetes After the Doctors Had Failed to Give Him Relief—What Dodd's Kidney Pills Do and Why.

St. Pie de Guire, Yamaska Co., Que. (Special)—"That there one cure for deadly Diabetes, and that cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. I proved once more in the case of Mr. Antoine Cottencour, a well known resident of this place."

"I am thankful I ever heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills," Mr. Cottencour states. "They cured me of Diabetes. I suffered with backache. I always felt weary. I had severe headaches and my limbs would cramp. I had a dry feeling and felt tired in the region of the kidneys, with a dragging heavy sensation across the loins."

"I was treated by the doctors, but got no benefit from them. Then I heard of cures made by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and made up my mind to try them. I took in all three dozen boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Today I am free from all trouble of all kinds."

"Dodd's Kidney Pills also cured me of stomach trouble from which I suffered for twenty-five years."

Diabetes is one of the most deadly forms of Kidney Diseases. But Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all forms of Kidney Diseases. They also cure the diabetes cures all those diseases that come from disordered kidneys, such as Rheumatism, Lumbago and Heart Disease."

A July Incident in January

Some of our far away readers will perhaps think that we are straining the truth when we tell them that on Saturday last Mr. Sam Troyer who lives a mile and a half east of town, was driving and stacking a pile of hay from his field. This is correct, and is only one incident of many that has happened in this district in the last few weeks. We admit that we have not the climate of California but for all round good weather this province cannot be beaten and new comers who have lived in other parts of Canada and U. S. are admitting that they have known nothing like this winter. The longer they stay the more they will realize that this district in this province of Alberta has Ontario and a great many parts of the States beaten a few miles for fine, mild, snowless winter weather.

The little snow that had fallen in the beginning of December went away long ago, and as will be seen below the temperature for the month of January has been high. We are indebted to Mr. C. L. Peterson, the local government meteorological reporter for this weather report which can be depended upon as being correct.

Hockey Team wins from Airdrie

The Hockey team journeyed to Air-drie on Saturday afternoon to play a friendly return exhibition game with that team. The game is reported as a fast one but the home team still remained victorious with a score of 8-2
in their favor.

The Didsbury boys are loud in their praise of the reception they received by the Airdrie team and public generally. They were all billeted at private houses and everything that was possible was done to make their short stay enjoyable. The boys are all eager for a return of the Airdrie boys to Didsbury so that they can return the compliment to some extent. This is the kind of report that we like to hear about.

The game between Red Deer and Didsbury at Red Deer is not definite yet but the boys are eager for the fray.

It is reported that Lacombe and Stettler teams have been professionaliz-
ed. If this is so Red Deer will play off in the semi-finals with Didsbury sometime this month.
